WORK EXPERIENCE

Henkel Adhesive Technologies, Düsseldorf, Germany

05/2025 - 08/2025

Global Marketing & Strategy Intern - Construction Adhesives

- Developed and published a live digital innovation page for the Pattex Ni Clou Ni Vis product range on the official Pattex France website, covering the full product lineup, lifestyle imagery, how-to videos, and multi-material application content across the range (pattex.fr).
- Created an Amazon A+ content page for the Pattex No More Nails relaunch, developing eCommerce-optimized product content including imagery, copy, and product benefit communication for the online retail channel.
- Produced social media content and video assets for YouTube and Instagram as part of the No More Nails relaunch digital campaign, coordinating with the creative agency on concept, brief, and execution.
- Coordinated with Nordic markets to adapt No More Nails relaunch digital assets into local languages, liaising between local teams and the creative agency to ensure consistent brand adaptation across markets.
- Built a comprehensive brand review of Pattex by analyzing market research data and competitor positioning across around 10 markets in Power BI, mapping consumer profiles and brand awareness to define strategic priorities.
- Consolidated brand and consumer insights into a full agency brief, translating data findings into a clear strategic direction that enabled the creative agency to develop targeted campaign proposals.
- Produced strategic decks and briefs for agency pitches, rebranding workshops, local market sessions, and internal conferences.
