PROFILE

MSc International Business student at WHU with hands-on experience in consumer insight, market analysis, and brand strategy at Henkel. Keen interest in analyzing consumer behavior and translating data into sharp marketing and brand decisions.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Henkel Adhesive Technologies, Düsseldorf, Germany

05/2025 - 08/2025

Global Marketing & Strategy Intern - Construction Adhesives

- Built a comprehensive brand review of Pattex by analysing market research data and competitor positioning across around 10 markets in Power BI, mapping consumer profiles, brand awareness, and the competitive landscape to define central strategic priorities and inform product positioning recommendations.
- Supported the brand architecture audit by analysing Pattex brand assets across consumer segments and packaging to clarify how elements should be deployed across digital and physical channels, and inform future positioning decisions.
- Consolidated market and consumer insights into a full agency brief, translating data findings into a clear strategic direction that enabled the creative agency to develop targeted campaign proposals.
- Contributed to the relaunch of Pattex No More Nails by developing a campaign roadmap and producing brand assets including an Amazon A+ content page, point-of-sale materials, social media content, TV commercials, and artwork, coordinating with the creative agency on concept and execution.
- Coordinated with Nordic markets to adapt relaunch artwork into local languages, liaising between local teams and the creative agency to ensure consistent brand adaptation across markets.
- Produced performance decks and strategic briefs for agency pitches, rebranding workshops, local market sessions, and internal conferences.

Henkel Adhesive Technologies, Düsseldorf, Germany

02/2026 - 08/2026

Brand Management Intern - ACC (Global Brand Pattex)

- Supported the Brand Manager in developing the Pattex Powers You global campaign big idea: contributed key visual proposals, animation concepts for TV commercials and YouTube content, campaign story briefs, and storyboards as creative inputs for the lead agency.
- Coordinated with stakeholders across multiple countries to manage campaign shoot logistics: arranged product shipments, provided creative direction feedback on set design and materials, and contributed to casting decisions by evaluating talent profiles and defining character briefs.
- Reviewed the Pattex Brand Book to ensure brand strategy, visual identity, and communication guidelines were coherently aligned across all touchpoints of the new campaign direction.
- Worked with the design partner to develop point-of-sale materials, key visuals, and presentation templates, providing detailed creative briefs and storyboard concepts as direction for execution.
- Integrated AI tools including ChatGPT, Claude, and Microsoft Copilot into daily workflows for data synthesis, brief writing, and content iteration, improving turnaround times on senior stakeholder deliverables.
