Application for Intern International Sales – starting from May 1st, 2025

Dear Recruiting Team,

I am currently in the first semester of my Master's in International Business at WHU – Otto Beisheim School of Management. I would like to apply for the Intern International Sales position at Bolton Adhesives and am available from May through August 2025.

Bolton Adhesives' innovative approach to delivering high-performing adhesive solutions while prioritizing sustainability aligns perfectly with my ambition to contribute to businesses that positively impact people's lives. As a leader in the FMCG sector with globally recognized brands like UHU and Bison, Bolton Adhesives offers an exciting opportunity to work at the intersection of international sales, trade marketing, and product development. I am particularly drawn to the company's emphasis on cross-functional collaboration, which is critical for driving growth and innovation.

At WHU, my coursework in Strategic Marketing and International Strategy has provided me with a strong foundation for addressing complex business challenges. Through case studies on global brands, I honed my ability to analyze markets, develop competitive strategies, and craft actionable recommendations. These academic experiences have instilled in me a structured approach to problem-solving, which I am eager to apply to tasks such as conducting market analyses, supporting product launches, and preparing sales presentations at Bolton Adhesives.

In my previous role as Sales Team Lead at Pickyourtrail, I managed a €2.6 million annual revenue target, leading a team of six to achieve consistent results. I worked closely with marketing teams to align sales pitches with client preferences and seasonal trends, a collaboration that resulted in improved conversion rates and enhanced customer satisfaction. By analyzing sales data and identifying high-potential opportunities, I developed and implemented strategies that contributed to our overall growth. These experiences taught me the importance of integrating marketing and sales strategies—a core aspect of the Intern International Sales role.

What excites me most about this internship is the opportunity to contribute to Bolton Adhesives' success by supporting trade marketing strategies, product launches, and ongoing product development projects. The chance to collaborate with diverse teams, including brand management, sales, and distributors, offers invaluable exposure to the complexities of international sales. I am confident that my proactive attitude, strong communication skills, and ability to thrive in a dynamic environment will enable me to make meaningful contributions to your team.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background and skills align with Bolton Adhesives' vision and how I can support your international sales initiatives.

Sincerely,
Shruthi Sankaranarayanan
