Application for Junior Brand Marketeer – starting from September 1st, 2026

Dear Recruiting Team,

I am currently in the final semester of my Master's in International Business at WHU – Otto Beisheim School of Management. I would like to apply for the Junior Brand Marketeer at Zwilling and am available from September 1st, 2026.

In my current role at Henkel, I support global brand initiatives for Pattex, including campaign development, asset creation coordination with creative agencies (TVCs, POS materials, campaign toolboxes), and market and competitor analysis. I also contribute to brand reviews by identifying key brand issues, consumer profiles, and competitive positioning. Working closely with global and local brand managers has strengthened my ability to collaborate cross-functionally, ensure consistent brand messaging, and support smooth campaign implementation across markets.

Previously at Pickyourtrail, I progressed from Senior Travel Consultant to Sales Team Lead, where I combined customer understanding with data-driven decision-making. I conducted market analysis using Power BI, tracked KPIs, and worked closely with cross-functional teams to improve customer experience and performance outcomes. This experience sharpened my analytical skills, initiative, and ability to manage multiple responsibilities in dynamic environments.

Through my academic coursework in Strategic Marketing and Consumer Behavior, combined with my practical marketing experience, I have developed a strong interest in building brands that resonate with consumers. I am particularly motivated by the opportunity to contribute to TWEEZERMAN's premium positioning and support local marketing initiatives, collaborations, and campaign execution in the German market.

I am highly organized, detail-oriented, and confident working with MS Office applications, especially PowerPoint and Excel. With strong English skills and an international background, I feel comfortable working in multicultural environments.

I would welcome the opportunity to contribute to the continued success of TWEEZERMAN and to grow within the ZWILLING Beauty Group team. Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Shruthi Sankaranarayanan
