Letter of Recommendation

TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

I would like to formally recommend Shruthi Sankaranarayanan who is working with Pickyourtrail from 1 Dec 2021. Shruthi assumed the role of a Travel Consultant, and in her capacity, she has consistently demonstrated exceptional skills in connecting with a diverse range of customers daily. Her primary responsibilities include understanding the unique travel requirements of our clients and crafting personalized travel plans to ensure a comfortable and memorable experience for them.

Beyond the essential qualities of effective communication, professional ethics, and perseverance, what truly sets Shruthi apart is her outstanding sales skills, particularly her adept sales pitch. Her ability to articulate the value proposition of our travel services has significantly contributed to the success of our sales efforts. Shruthi's dedication to her role and her commitment to delivering high-quality service have not gone unnoticed. She has consistently exceeded expectations, and her positive impact on both our team and our customers has been commendable. I would also like to highlight that she has been my team's top performer with an overall revenue achievement of 145% for the entire year.

In addition to her remarkable revenue-generating abilities and the qualities previously highlighted, I would like to emphasize Shruthi's insatiable curiosity for learning about new destinations. This particular trait has proven to be a game-changer for our team's success, particularly in the case of Bali. Shruthi took it upon herself to delve deep into the intricacies of Bali, demonstrating an extraordinary commitment to understanding the destination thoroughly.

Her dedication to learning and mastering the nuances of Bali played a pivotal role in the successful scaling of Bali as a focused destination within our organization.

Due to Shruthi exemplary qualities and relentless pursuit of growth, she earned a well-deserved promotion to Team Lead within a year. Currently managing a team of five, achieving a monthly revenue milestone of USD 200,000, showcasing her exceptional leadership and contribution to our organization's success.

Shruthi would be an asset to any University she joins and comes with my heartfelt recommendation. For further questions regarding Shruthi, her work, and this recommendation, please call or email me as mentioned below.

Regards

Yours Sincerely,

Sunil Kumar
